STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES

Jyothi Engineering Collge has a zero tolerance policy regarding RAGGING. MITS has formed anti-ragging committee/squad to strictly deal with ragging incidents. To keep a continuous watch and vigil over ragging to prevent its occurrence and recurrence. To promptly and stringently deal with the incidence of ragging brought to our notice. College has taken various precautions to prevent ragging and ensures 100% no ragging. Some of them are :

- Formed an Anti- Ragging Committee consisting of senior faculty members, senior Technical staff, and senior administrative officer and headed by HoD of one of the Department.
- Committee has taken steps and allotted duties to all the staff members at almost all areas in the college
- Many awareness programmes about Anti-Ragging were organised by the Anti-Ragging Committee.
- Wide canvassing about anti-ragging, is being done in the forms of Flexes, Posters and Boards in college premises and surrounding areas where there is a chance of ragging.

Measures or preventive action taken at institution level

- Places inside the campus like hostels and canteen are identified which are prone to ragging
- Separate rooms in hostel are identified and allocated to the new entrants of the college and special care is taken about them
- Sign boards and mobile numbers of anti-ragging committee members are put at important places in the campus and at the website to report any ragging issues by students.
- Undertakings are collected from all S3 students and their parents

MINUTES OF THE MEETING HELD ON 11.08.2016

Date: 11/08/2016.

Venue: Insight Hall

The first general body meeting for anti-ragging cell for the 2016-2017 academic year on 11/08/2016 at Insight hall, 02.30pm. The meeting was presided by principal Dr. K.K Babu. Principal discussed about the activities of anti-ragging committee on last year and informed the members about the importance of the committee. He told the committee members to inform all class tutors to provide awareness among the students regarding anti-ragging. All faculty members should take the leadership and watch them closely during all the interval times. Genuine complaints should be considered seriously. Try to avoid unnecessary contacts between seniors and junior students.

Open discussion was carried out. Members suggested that some surprise visits should be there in different areas such as canteen, coffee shops, and corridors of the college during interval times. The meeting comes to an end at 03.30pm
