MINUTES OF THE MEETING HELD ON 26.07.2018

Minutes of Anti-Ragging committee meeting held on 26-07-2018

Date: 26/07/2018

Venue: Insight Hall

The first general body meeting for Anti-Ragging cell for the academic year was conducted on 26-07-2018 at Insight hall at 1:00 pm. The meeting was presided by respected Principal Rev. Dr. James Paul Mukarikkal.

Vice Principal Prof. Rathnasir delivers welcome to all. Principal on his presidential speech mentioned the importance of the anti-ragging committee. He told that, as ragging is a criminal offense, we are bounded to give awareness about the seriousness of ragging among all students. Also, even sharp look against junior students by the seniors will include in the list of ragging offense. Small talks may lead to serious issues and may result in a clash. So, it is very important to observe the students by all the faculties to avoid any disputes among students. Principal shared his experience that, in some cases, the students may report a fake complaint against his rival for taking action up on him. So, it is very important to verify whether the given complaint is genuine or not. Principle opines that it will be better to give minimum interaction for first-year students with senior students. The principal informed to conduct an effective anti-ragging seminar to all third semester during August first week.

After the presidential talk of principal, open discussions were conducted. Convener of the anti-ragging cell, Dr. David KJ express that, it is better to conduct surprise visit in the canteen, cafeteria, hostel, toilet, playground and even in the classrooms. He also told that observation should be there on the college bus also. Vice Principal Prof. Ratnanomphasis the importance of anti-ragging awareness class and request to conduct this class immediately. Mr. Nidhan Johnson APJBNM informs to publish more posters on the campus. The meeting came to an end at 3:40 pm by the vote of thanks of Assistant Administrator Er. Bobby Peter.
