They intend to start the Scholarship from the Admission of 2016. To begin with the Second Party Alumnae entrusted Rs. 75,000/- to the Principal to institute an Endowment in their name. He in consultation with the College Scholarship Committee will make arrangements to grant an amount of Rs. 5,000/- as scholarship every year from the interest of the Endowment to a most needy student of 2016 Admission Batch. The Alumnae will make an earnest effort to enhance the Corpus Fund for the Endowment and until then the College will provide the same Scholarship amount annually.

It has been agreed by the College that it will select a suitable candidate and the Scholarship will continue in ensuing years. The scholarship will continue to the same candidate provided he /she has stipulated academic performance. On the other hand, the college is authorized to select a new candidate. Once a scholar passed out, the college will select a new hand from the Admission of that year.

The parties by mutual agreement have set their hands on this the 3rd day of November 2015.
